CANAVERAL NATIONAL SEASHORE PARTICIPATE IN FULL- SCALE DISASTER EXERCISE

Canaveral National Seashore will be hosting and participating in a Full-scale disaster exercise next Wednesday, Oct 22 with other Federal, State and Local agencies involving nearly 100 emergency response personnel.

Participants will include the National Park Service, U.S. Coast Guard, Civil Air Patrol, Florida's Urban Search and Rescue Task Force 4, Florida Fish and Wildlife Conservation Commission, U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service and Seminole County Sheriff's Office. Volusia County's participants will include the Sheriff's Office, Fire Services' Hazardous Materials and Technical Rescue Teams, EVAC Ambulance and Mosquito Control.

The purpose of the exercise is to train personnel and evaluate their actions and capabilities during a multi-agency response to a downed aircraft and Haz-Mat incident.

About the National Park Service. More than 20,000 National Park Service employees care for America's 401 national parks and work with communities across the nation to help preserve local history and create close-to-home recreational opportunities. Learn more at www.nps.gov.
